INTRODUCTION. The matter contained in this little volume has been previously published. Many calls for parts of it in permanent form has led to this result. Profoundly impressed with the importance of patriotic teaching, I have striven to entertain the young. Finding myself actuated and sustained through a long service in the army by those impulses which were planted and nurtured in my youth, I have hoped to implant in the breast of another a germ of the same flower--it is one of the few whose fragrance grows sweeter with life's declining sun. If I succeed, it is all I hope for and much more than I have reason to expect, but the effort shall be no longer deferred. I have inserted two half-tone views of the only lot that were ever taken of Andersonville, and they will be of interest. They...
