

Repugnance: The 2012 Version of the Republican Babble (Paperback)

By George Won't, John F Ince

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Repugnance is the new rage - political theatre of the absurd. It s a satirical political movement that slams Republicans to the mat and pins them down by using their own twisted logic. Get ready for the Repugnance National Unconvention, held on college campuses around the country, August 31- September 2, 2012. Get your sneak preview of all the crazy talk that leads up to it. Between now and then, you ll be hearing a lot about these characters, whose caricatures painted in Repugnance tones are almost as stupid as the candidates themselves . you ll learn to love: - Mutt Romnoid: The Panderer - A robot candidate without a personality or character. - Snoot Gingrich: The Professor - An intellectually dishonest candidate of kooky ideas with hefty baggage to match his girth. - P.Rick Perry: The Clown - A Yee-haw candidate without a clue. - Michele Babblethump: The Loony - Ms. Crazy Eyes who passionately defends Supply Side economics as the second coming of the savior. - Run Paul: The Radical - A perpetual candidate whose rabid supporters almost...
