If Leo ever runs for a second term on a Civil Service Reform platform, he can bet all the Cardinals hats on the Vatican rack that he will be re-elected. MR. FERDINAND WARD S contributions to the literature of the day through the columns of the Herald make very interesting reading. We should not be surprised if in future ages Mr. Ward s name should be found to rank with that of Baron Munchausen, and bound volumes of the New York Herald should be catalogued under the head of Pure Fiction. THE Democratic party may now be said to be entirely harmonious, almost as much so in fact as a dynamite bomb. THE rural Democratic organs of this State are unanimously of the opinion that Governor Hill is a great man and bound to rise. In the latter regard we are...
