Maggies Story: Teachings of a Cherokee Healer

By Pamela Dawes Tambornino

Mammoth. Paperback. Condition: New. 136 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.4in. x 0.5in. Teachings of a Cherokee spiritual person take place spontaneously, not in formal classrooms. Often these lessons are passed on from mother to daughter or father to son. Pamela Dawes Tambornino shares her grandmothers knowledge of language, herbal cures, animals, and people. She shows how the entire life of a healer is a text to be pondered, as well as nature and its processes. As the author reflects upon her grandmothers lessons, she brings to life the humor and the generosity that made her grandmother a healer respected by her Oklahoma family and community. Tambornino, an enrolled member of Cherokee Nation, follows her grandmothers lead as she entertains her readers and also, indirectly, instructs them. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
