HARPER PERENNIAL, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Spring 1938. After nearly two years in prison for the crime of stealing his own grain, Ukrainian immigrant Teodor Mykolayenko is a free man. While he was gone, his wife, Maria; their five children; and his sister, Anna, struggled to survive on the harsh northern Canadian prairie, but now Teodor a man who has overcome drought, starvation, and Stalin s purges is determined to make a better life for them. But the family s hopes and newfound happiness are short-lived when Anna s rogue husband, the arrogant and scheming Stefan, unexpectedly returns, stirring up rancor and discord that will end in violence and tragedy. Shandi Mitchell has woven an unbearably suspenseful story, rich with fiery conflict, written in a language of luminous beauty and clarity.
