Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Indictment: July, 1919 A word about the author of the following remarkable pamphlet. Without doubt the paper is one of the most powerful and unique polemics yet produced by Ireland s most recent struggle for independence. To the Irish race in America, and the friends of Ireland s cause, the author, Daniel FlorenceCohalan, stands out as a strong national and international figure. Above all else, he is to them a 100 per cent American, whose fight for Ireland s liberty grows directly out of his American character and principles. He is a native of the State of New York, born at Middletown. He is in the full vigor of middle age. Of the pure Celtic strain of the fighting race, members of his family have been in every war for America from the Revolution on. He is a graduate of Manhattan College, of New York City. Admitted to the Bar in 1888, for many years he practiced law in New York. He became interested in politics, and, over a course of years, wrote the State and City platforms of one of the great parties. In the year 1911 he was appointed to theSupremeCourt bench of the State of New York and, in the following election, he was electedto a full term of fourteen years. From the days of his youth he w as interested in the cause of Ireland, and constantly worked and spoke in her behalf. He has visited Ireland many times; has a beautiful country place near Cork, and, oddly enough, knows England almost as well as he knows Ireland. He has been many times a visitor of both countries and is a...
