At this time Gen. Washington s head-quarters were in the house until recently owned by Caleb Miller, the first house west of Dr. Hardenberg s residence. One other incident connected with Gen. Washington s residence at Somerville, we give as appropriate here. To the house which A. Voorhees Nevius now owns, near North Branch village, Gen. Washington-once went, while his head-quarters were at Raritan, on a visit of condolence to the widow of Capt. Isaac Brokaw, killed in the battle of Germantown. Dr. Messler s reflections on this incident are as follows: We have always thought this incident one of the most beautiful exhibitions of his most extraordinary life. What a heart the great man had! And he...
