Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Al Fogel, widely published poet and former editor, turns his unique talent and skill to the senryu-the humorous human side of haiku-in this highly entertaining and groundbreaking book of over 60 memorable cyber-related senryu-most of which have appeared in the leading senryu and haiku publications worldwide. Now available for the first time in book format (first trade printing sold out)--these award-winning and highly acclaimed poems can't fail to resonate with today's readers. ADVANCE CRITICAL ACCLAIM FROM AROUND THE GLOBE: Liam Wilkinson-former editor of Prune Juice -the leading senryu publication worldwide: Truly brilliant.his senryu packs the same punch as those of Pizzarelli, Swede and the rest of the greats. Marion Alice Poirier-Award-winning haijin from the United States: Fogel's senryu shows by example the sardonic humor that I have come to know and love in his senryu. Altho senryu can also be serious, it is a welcome treat to read those that give me a chuckle with my morning coffee. Alan Summers-Widely published haijin poet and editor from England: Writing proper senryu is a huge skill, and most are shallow. Fogel's aren't. They can often be incredibly thoughtful-as the senryu in Fogel's new book will reveal-and I wish more senryu poets would follow his example. John McManus-Widely published haiku poet and editor from the UK: Fogel brings the senryu into the modern era with his timely topical themes. Never dull. An emerging senryu master in the making. Chen-ou Liu-International published haijin poet and publisher from Canada: Fogel's senryu always puts a smile on my face. Susan Constable-Widely published poet and editor from Canada: Often hard-hitting and poignant, as well as terse and true to life, Fogel's...
