When she gets pregnant her senior year in college, she loses everything. She loses her boyfriend, and her chair in the philharmonic. Five years later, she has learned that value of life outside of music. She still loves music, but knows it doesn't define her life. She is more than just one thing. Enter Robbie Peterson. He is a star professional athlete, but he is injured. He is struggling to find meaning in life outside of football. When he and Melissa meet by chance, can their bond save him? Will they each find fulfillment in each other? ----- EXCERPT FROM BOOK Melissa found herself, unexpectedly, to be having a good time. The two of them talked and laughed all the way back to his building. When they got there, she looked up and saw where they were. She knew he was wealthy, but wow. She was even more...
