Excerpt: . . . 11 tionships with its Office of the Inspector General and the Govern-ment Accountability Office. In nearly four decades of government service, I have developed a deep appreciation of the investigative and audit work that the IGs and GAO conduct. It is through appropriate oversight that gov-ernment agencies can improve internal processes and programs. As Secretary Chertoff stated during his February 8 congressional testi-mony, cooperation with these entities is imperative. The department maintains management directives regarding its interactions and cooperation with the GAO and the IG. We are looking into numerous ways to improve the management processes of the department, including the re-sponsiveness to the GAO and the OIG. During his February 8 testimony, the secretary acknowledged the need for greater information flow and he has committed to im-proving this process. For example, he has already put in place...
