THE BRAIN DEFENSE: MURDER IN MANHATTAN AND THE DAWN OF NEUROSCIENCE IN AMERICAS COURTCOURTS

Penguin Press. Hardcover. Condition: New. 384 pages. In 1991, the police were called to East 72nd St. in Manhattan, where a woman's body had fallen from a twelfth-story window. The woman's husband, Herbert Weinstein, soon confessed to having hit and strangled his wife after an argument before dropping her body out of their apartment window to make it look like a suicide. The 65-year-old Weinstein, a quiet, unassuming retired advertising executive, had no criminal record, no history of violent behavior...

Reviews

Basically no words and phrases to describe. It is really simplified but unexpected situations in the fifty percent of your book. I am delighted to let you know that here is the very best publication I have got to go through within my very own lifestyle and might be the greatest publication for actually.

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
