Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Maybe there is something special between Adam and me, but that doesn't mean we're guaranteed a happily ever after. Love and romance aren't always forever. Brooklyn I'm a spirited, athletic community college student from New Jersey, traveling to attend my mother's Hawaiian wedding to a wealthy land developer. If I meet a hunky man who piques my interest while I'm on the beach or in the pool, I might just take a chance. You know the rest. When I hook-up with a gorgeous bronze surf instructor any caution remaining in me drops straight to the bottom of the sea. I'm an eager audience for his sweet words. I'm convinced he adores my show-stopping red hair and my unsinkable style, on both land and water. His lagoon blue eyes bedazzle me so completely that the word regret loses all meaning for me. Until later that same night when I discover his father is the man marrying my mother. And that he's escorting a tall gorgeous blond in a strapless sheath dress to the rehearsal dinner. And that he still has enough brass in his balls to hit on me at the wedding reception. When I feel his molten arms around my waist, my blood heats up so quickly that I vent steam whiter than his dinner jacket into the blue night. Just who does my new stepbrother Adam Seabrook think he is? He even makes it impossible for me to scream at him in frustration. How can I, when our lips are locked together as tight as a chowder clam? My best solution is to put a wide ocean between us. But my plan isn't dialing down my summery heat even...
