Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bulb Culture for the Amateur There is no time of the year when flowers are as much appreciated in the garden as in the spring, and there is no time when they are valued as highly indoors as from Christmas until spring; hence, anything that will give abundant bloom and attractive flowers, at a minimum cost, at these seasons, should be exceedingly popular. Bulbs will do this, and lovers of flowers in Canada are planting them in increasing numbers yearly. In order that the members of the Ottawa Horticultural Society, and others also, might have as much information as possible regarding the culture of bulbs, and the best varieties to grow, a Committee was appointed by the Directors of the Society, last winter, to prepare a bulletin on the subject, and after careful preparation, this Committee has much pleasure in presenting the results of its labours. The aim has been to give the information in as practical a form as possible, and it is hoped that members of the Society who follow the directions given...
