Brash Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The outrageously inventive, exhilarating, sexually-charged thriller from Emmy Award-winning writer Phoebe Sutton. Carl moved into his childhood home after his parents died. It's a house filled with fond memories, like when he was a teenager and his girlfriend Jesse would throw pebbles at his window at night to lure him outside for frantic sex. So he thinks he's dreaming when late one night, he hears those pebbles hitting his window again, and there she is outside, aching for his touch. It's only as they are ravaging each other again that he realizes it's too good to be a dream. It's her. She's back as if nothing has changed. But it has. For one thing, it's been twenty years since high school. And she died three weeks ago. Is she an imposter? A ghost? Or is the answer even more chilling? It's just the beginning of a dangerous, unpredictable, and bizarre odyssey for them both, where nothing is what it seems, and every minute counts.
