

A Sweet Morsel of Libertarianism (Paperback)

By Stephen Aiken

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I think that most of us can agree government is necessary; but how much is enough? Should the government tax us into poverty; and than give us food stamps and housing subsidies? Is there an alterative method for governments to collect revenue? Dose the government run school system discriminate against religion? Does a military draft and other forced participation constitute slavery? These questions and others will be examined in my Liberty series. The first book of the series A Sweet Morsel of Libertarianism is a short overview of libertarianism and offers some solutions.
