In view, however, of the facts disclosed in the evidence taken by the Commission, and the nature of the testimony given by certain of the witnesses, we are of the opinion that the true inwardness of the Ladysmith strike cannot be rightly understood apart from its relation to other industrial disturbances existing at the time, and particularly to the strike of the United Brotherhood of Railway Employees at Vancouver. Relation of Miners Strike at Ladysmith to Strike of T.J.B.R.E. at Vancouver. As already described the strike of the United Brotherhood was declared on February 27, and involved, in the first instance, clerks, officemen, baggagemen, and men in stores among the employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Vancouver. It was followed by strikes of freight-handlers, longshoremen and...
