By Lauren Rosolino

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Collin was who he was: simple and easy. Me? I was jagged and complex. I wanted everything. And despite how he made me feel-safe-it was clear to me that we d never work out in the end. That divide between us would always be there. Because I d never ask him to give up on the things he wanted. And while I sometimes wished I could be that person, I wasn t. Just seven more months. Then Jamie Benson can leave this goodbye town behind her and start her new life in Chicago. She can leave this place of broken glass and cracked sidewalks and rusted fences. This place that holds nothing good. She can leave the ghosts and spinning rooms and shattered promises in her rearview mirror and never look back. But all the stories she s been telling herself are threatened when, one night, while tending bar at her father s hole-in-the-wall dive, she meets Collin-a boy who is good and honest and sincere in a world where everything is harsh and cold and detached. A boy who makes...
