The family includes Mommy and Daddy, Grandpa and Grandma, Brothers Edward and Bob, Sisters Alice and Penelope, and Hip Hop, who is the youngest bunny in the family. Hip Hop loves to go on adventures with Grandpa and he is always willing to tag along. One day Hip Hop wakes up and decides she wants blueberry pancakes for breakfast. She and Grandpa set off in search of blueberries in the woods for the family's pancake breakfast. This is a heartwarming story about family relationships and a baby bunny who loves life and her family. Hip Hop and the Yellow Hat was the first in the Hip Hop series. Denise Marshall is a 57-year-old mother of three beautiful daughters and the grandmother of three grandsons and a granddaughter. She has worked as a professional dog groomer for 36 years, has owned her own grooming business for 13 years and has participated in wildlife rescue for six years. Hip Hop was one of the baby bunnies she received from a rescue. The bunny was unusual because she refused to eat unless someone was talking to her. The author made up stories of Hip Hop's adventures to share with the real Hip Hop to get her to eat. Publisher's website: /DeniseMarshall.
