I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 79: November 8, 1917 The Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints invites attention to its work Of unselfish, practical, unremitting benevolence. In missionary service the Church has been active since the date Of its organization; and this systematic labor, because Of its extent and unique methods, has attracted attention and stimulated comment in practically all nations Of the earth. Actuated by a genuine love for humanity and the desire to Obey the Divine command respecting such, the Church sends out every year hundreds Of missionaries to proclaim its message to the world. These devoted servants comprise men and women called from all vocations. Who serve without salary or any other form Of material remuneration. Furthermore, they pay their own way in traveling to their appointed fields Of labor and while serving therein, except so far as they may receive assistance from those who become interested in their work.
