Millions of our young men are now under arms in. This country or in foreign lands, and millions more are enlisting. Other millions of men and women are passing out of peaceful pursuits into indus tries made necessary by the war. Every industry not essential to the su preme need of winning this war must suffer for the time being. Some in: dustries that are essential are also suffering - ameng them the schools. Thousands of teachers have entered the army or the Government service, causing a shortage of qualified teachers, and the schools are suffering, This means that War is resting heavily upon the childhood of the country; This; should not be permitted if it is humanly possible to prevent it. Des stroyed property can be restored - not so with wasted childhood. It is the duty of every one next to the supreme duty of actually engaging in the war, to keep the schools going at their maximum efficiency. To do this uh der such abnormal conditions demands trained, consecrated, patriotic teach ers. We invite you to Eastern to secure this training.
