Bacon Press Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. In this short but sweet novella, Wynn spins an enjoyable tale of lost souls colliding in the most unlikely of places. ---- Kirkus Reviews Would you risk your life for a stranger? For seventy-three-year-old Jaime, the answer takes him by surprise. Accustomed to a lonely life high up in the mountains on the western coast of Mallorca, his dull routine is suddenly shattered when a man parachutes from a plane and lands nearby. The plane crashes; the man lives. It s a drug smuggling operation gone bad. But Stefan, the man from the sky, has escaped with eight kilos of cocaine in a gym bag. Jaime brings Stefan home and is soon entangled in Stefan s attempts to sell the cocaine and start a new life. As they dodge Parisian drug dealers and corrupt Mallorcan police, Jaime s search for excitement and Stefan s resolve to find stability lead them both down dangerous paths. Conjuring shades of Steinbeck s meditations on nature, this enjoyable, pleasant yarn passes like the cool summer breezes described within its pages. -- Kirkus Reviews.
