Excerpt: . . . at their own expense, added a fourth. Though no estates appear to have been originally annexed to it, yet the bounty of the corporation of London and that of other benefactors, has proved the means of raising such a fund, as not only to insure its permanency, but to extend its objects; so that the annual number of patients may now be estimated at 11, 000, and the expenditure at upwards of 1 0, 000. The Governors are, the Lord Mayor, and court of Aldermen; and those who, on giving SO. , or upwards, to the charity, receive a governors staff. The front of the chapel, in the second court, is decorated with four lofty pilasters, of the Corinthian order, and a pediment. In the centre of this court is a bronze statue of Edward VI. , by Scheemakers, of considerable merit. A broad...
