

The Woman Who Swallowed Her Cat: and Other Bizarre Medical Cases

By Rob Myers

ECW Press, Canada, Canada, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Join Dr. Myers in his quest for unusual case studies as he unravels medical mysteries. - Depressed and lonely, a man decides that pills and alcohol are too gentle an exit. How did he end up in the driver's seat without his head? - Drunken neighbours decide that beautifying the hedges on their property can be easily accomplished without hedge clippers. Removing the handlebars of a lawnmower, they lift the mower and its whirring gas powered blades, and quickly lose their buzz. - A teenager, obsessed with self-stimulation, elects to use uncooked spaghetti during his amorous exploits with disastrous consequences that only a urologist can deal with. - Vending machines are heavy and formidable foes; no match for an angry high school football player who wants his dollar back. - Pool balls are round, smooth, and heavy, qualities that make them very difficult to remove from locations they should never have been placed. - Chlorine is a concentrated toxin. Very little is required to sanitize a pool. What happens when you swim in the wrong liquid? - Sexual escapades have...
