

Leadership and Motivation in Lean Times: A Handbook for Leaders in Government and Business (Paperback)

By Mary T Meyer

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What does leadership have to do with motivation? Everything! We live in an era of widespread budget cuts, extensive layoffs, and pervasive uncertainty. Asking employees and leaders to do more and more with less and less is depleting our human resources. In lean times, effective leadership is more critical than ever. This book was written for leaders of government organizations, but the leadership principles apply to all leaders. Leadership and Motivation in Lean Times covers all the essentials: core principles, leadership styles, LEAN management, communication, innovation, diversity, transition, accountability and resiliency. However, this is not your typical leadership book. It directly addresses topics often considered taboo and untouchable: oAre leaders responsible for low morale, motivation and productivity? oWhy is ineffective leadership allowed to continue? oWhat stops people from holding leaders accountable? oHow does someone qualify to be an elected official? oWhy are employees so afraid to speak up? oHow do we balance bureaucracy and flexibility in a competitive global economy? oWhat are some strategies for making effective decisions in extremely uncertain times? In this book, the author covers topics related to leadership:...
