Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Recent Mexican Study of the Native, Languages of Mexico Everyone is more or less familiar with the fact that there are many old books printed in Aztec and the other native languages of Mexico. Some of the oldest and rarest of American prints are among these. In 1866 the eminent Jose Garcia Icazbalceta, so careful as an historian and so diligent as a bibliographer, prepared a preliminary work upon these curious books under the title, Apuntes para un catalogo de escritores en lenguas indigenas de America (Notes for a catalogue of writers in the native languages of America). The work is the rarest of Icazbalceta's publications; preliminary to a fuller treatment and a help to special students, it can hardly be said to have been issued to the public. No copies were sold. The author says in his preface: But it has not, on this account, lost its original character. The sixty examples which I have printed with my own hands are no more than so many other copies of the manuscript. None will...
