Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . .Un auteur anglais reproche a ses compatriotes d avoir generalement moins bien choisi l emplacement de leurs villes dans l Inde que les autres Europeens; mais la raison en est que les Anglais vinrent les derniers, et peut-etre ce fut cette circonstance peu favorable qui les obligea a faire de plus grands efforts pour compenser l inferiorite de leur position. Comme nous l avons dit, en 1717 Calcutta n etait qu une miserable ville environnee de marecages, de forets, et faiblement defendue par un petit fort, puisqu en 1742 il fallut creuser un fosse pour prevenir l attaque des Mahrattes. Ce peuple belliqueux, separe en deux nations par la double usurpation du premier ministre Balajee Bajerow et du tresorier Bagojee Boonsla (qui, refusant obeissance au prince Ram Radja, s etaient fixes l un a Poonah, l autre a Nagpour), obeissait a une foule de petits chefs, a peu pres independants les uns des autres, mais toujours prêts a s unir contre l ennemi commun. La puissante confederation des Mahrattes venait d enlever Salsette et la forteresse de Bassein aux Portugais, de soumettre tout le pays de l Indus au Gange, comme pour indiquer d avance aux Anglais que, pour etre maitres de l Inde entiere, il fallait s appuyer sur les deux grands fleuves qui sont ses limites naturelles.
