Excerpt: . . . 21 use for operations, including survey activities. Typically, tables within the conference report identify amounts for survey and other activities funded through the Program Management Account. According to a CMS official, the agency generally allocates the amounts specified in the conference 22 report tables to the relevant activities. Funding for survey activities covers (1) state survey operations; (2) direct federal surveys, such as community mental health centers; and (3) support contracts, such as for training surveyors, developing a new nursing home survey methodology, 23 and surveying psychiatric hospitals. The costs of managing survey activities, such as salaries for staff of CMSs Survey and Certification Group and federal surveyors in each of CMSs 10 regional offices, are also funded through CMSs Program Management Account, but not as part of the funds designated in the conference report for survey activities. Each August, CMS notifies states of their projected Medicare budget allocations for the federal fiscal year starting October 1, based on the Presidents proposed budget. After enactment of the appropriations act, the agency notifies states of any changes in their Medicare allocations for survey activities. At the end of the federal fiscal year, CMS may provide supplemental funds to states that spent more than their initial Medicare allocations by redistributing funds from states that spent less than their 24 allocations. 25 Medicaid. For surveys of facilities funded by Medicaid, states generally pay 25 percent of the costs and the federal government pays the remaining 21 Medicare income in excess of spending is held in the Medicare Trust Funds and invested in federal government securities. The appropriations...
