Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What s the best way to learn about the different periods in theatre history? By example, of course! In A Brief History of Theatre, the audience is taken on a tour of theatre history by presenting (almost) the same story in three styles: Ancient Greek, Elizabethan, and Modern Musical. The fourth wall is irreparably broken as two Announcers introduce and comment on three separate yet inseparable plays: Four Against a Serpent, All s Well That s Dressed in Armor, and Sammy Kate. Designed for flexible casting, the show has twenty-three speaking roles (not counting the Greek Chorus) and room for plenty of extras, but can be performed with as few as nine actors of any gender.
