AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this third book of the Poetria trilogy, the author gives way to his alter-ego, Alter, from the p. u. (parallel universe) who delivers a course in p. u. astrology, i.e. The Signs of The Fortune Cookiac, a useful guide to the constellations in the p.u., followed by an even more helpful essay, How To Tell If A Poet Is Mad, then thirty-one synopses to thirty-one poems of the Madman, each sandwiching in a view from the Port window of the author s homemade spacecraft, the breathtaking S.S. Galactophonema. The thirty-one poems range (or better said, de-range) from the circus sideshow subculture, to the Blind Nudists Conventions, Papal audience precautions at the Vatican, and a creative Will and Last Testament that could postpone dying. The Musings consist of all the above, and are preceded by the author s remorseful discovery on the book s dedication page, that he is a Twentyfirst Century decadent as defined therein, and wherein he implicates his p.u. ego. Obviously, this is the lot and fate of close association with people, i.e. Poetrians. Does such a condition end with a trilogy? It s doubtful, but really, only time will tell, yes?.
