Excerpt from The Man-Made World or Our Androcentric Culture That this last is disputed by the majority of present day biologists will not surprise anyone who reads it and who is familiar with the nature of the human mind. All new scientific discoveries are slow of universal acceptance; and anything so subversive of historic custom as this, involving so complete a change of attitude regarding the relations of the sexes to one another and to Society, cannot be expected to make rapid progress in popular belief. Time, study and experience may be trusted to establish the truth. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
