Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The night before she was murdered, Faith had been studying with Karena at the Davis Library, on the university campus. At around 8 or 8:30 p.m., Faith took a break from her studies to send a text to her father - Hey Daddy, I love you, the message read. She also texted her niece, reminding her to register to vote in the upcoming election. You know. Please let her know you care. A few minutes later, another text comes through that simply says, than. It is suspected that the message was intended to fix a typo in the original message, correcting it to say Karena needs you more than you know. Brandon didn't reply until the next day, when Faith's phone received a text at 4:16 p.m. that read, Who is this? At around 4:30 a.m., Karena left the apartment to go over to a friend's house - and claims that she did see Faith asleep at that time. When she returned at around 11 a.m., however, she found her roommate's body in her room, in her bed,...
