And by simply typing his name in a Google or Amazon search (Joseph J Tuttle) you ll be able to look-up his other efforts. The story revolves around an old-timer horse trainer that goes by the character name Pops. And, it delves into many different sub-plots, while still being very succinct in its nature. This book is very James Carroll-esque, in the way in which Mr. Tuttle incorporates a lot of actual events from the past; while also using many anecdotal situations from his own life; along with an unusual use of embellishing that helps to make this short story ( novella ) quite the entertaining read. Additionally, Mr. Tuttle expresses an honest willingness to possibly collaborate with someone, in developing this story into a screenplay.
