Conspiracy or Faith, As I have been studying the scriptures for many years, the one thing I see more than anything else, is; the call to ask the question, are you going to go by the conspiracy, or will you depend on faith, we all know, well, at least many of us do, faith is a double standard word, so faith comes through catching hold of experience, through the main method is teaching or hearing, whatever you and I hear, will endow us with a certain kind of faith. Faith however is the foundational understanding of the Kingdom of God, but it is having the right kind of faith that makes the difference, Bishop Darryl Husband of Mount Oliver Church in Richmond Virginia was the first one that I heard speak on the issues of faith as we misunderstand it, the terms used then was, your faith, based on what? we all have faith, we all apply faith each and everyday, however, we have activated worldly faith, but this kind of faith won't get us results on the Kingdom level. Compliance with the Kingdom of God, was what Jesus was teaching the disciples, while he walked with them, he wanted them to understand, what the God kind of faith could do, if they were to finally step out of the worldly faith, he rebuked them, over and over, and they finally started to get it. In the process of healing, Jesus used ten words or less, every single time, the longest term that he used was when he prayed before calling his friend out of the tomb, with the woman with the issue of blood, it wasn't his words, but...
