What does this ZIP Reads Summary Include? A synopsis of the original book Key takeaways that distill the most important points Key themes to help you understand the overarching benefits and common roadblocks In-depth Editorial Review Short bio of the original author About the Original Book: Mindfulness is one form of meditation becoming more prominent in Western society, especially since it is presented as a secular tool for life, not a spiritual dilemma. A passionate advocate after mindfulness practice transformed his life, Dan Harris is set to convince even the staunchest skeptic of its benefits and application in daily life. Together with meditation teacher, Jeffrey Warren, Dan sets off on a road trip to cement the philosophy of 10 Happier: Meditation for Fidgety Skeptics - the application developed to teach simple, practical meditation to anyone who wants to try it. Along the way he discovers more than he bargained for and welcomes Robert Johnson to the party. DISCLAIMER: This book is...
