Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Anna Jackson was happy. Her life had always been perfect. In Southern Plains, New South Wales, where she lived with her parents, two homesteads sat amid the green pastures. Anna s family had built their house when they purchased the property years ago. In the other lived Anna s aunt and uncle, and her cousin Mollie. For as long as Anna could remember, Zach Sinclair had been a part of her life, too, and she hoped one day they might be together. But the Jackson and Sinclair families were divided by an ancient feud, and the Jackson family had built itself around secrets. Such secrets have a way of coming out, and when they do so in the midst of tragedy, no one is prepared for the outcome. Zach and Anna realise the relationship they have pinned their hopes on could be destroyed by what lies beneath the years of deceit. They believe their love is forever, but can it really withstand the truth?.
