Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Set in an alternate history where myth and magic were very much real, The Eventide Child exists in a world where the Roman Empire lost the Second Punic War and because of this history has diverged greatly. The first book of The Eventide Series, The Eventide Child follows the story of Alexandra, a simple 14 year old girl plagued with strange dreams who lives an idyllic pastoral life with her father in Arkadia, a province far removed from the hustle and bustle of the slowly collapsing Empire. Despite having never left the peaceful farmlands she inhabited, Alexandra longs for adventure and forces her father to allow her to accompany him as he travels to the city to sell their goods. The Eventide Child follows Alexandra along her journey as she learns that some things are not myth and that the world is a far darker place than the simplicity Arkadia had offered in a tale rife with loss, betrayal, and drama.
