HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT In order to show that the work of the Mothers Congress is practical, as well as ethical, we beg to insert here a short story of the Free Day Nurseries at Utah Street School, and First Street School, which were inaugurated by the State Congress, and taken in charge by the Los Angeles Federation after its organization. The Utah Street School Free Day Nursery: In May, 1909, while visiting the Utah Street School for the purpose of speaking at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association on Home Economics, the scene presented to me was that of little babies, and very small children attending school. Some were sleeping in the Principals office, others were in various rooms with their Little Mothers, who were trying to study. It was difficult work caring for baby and studying at the same time. On inquiring I found that most of the little ones came from Russian families. I asked Miss Alice Cushing, their noble-hearted principal, as to-how these conditions came...
