Excerpt from Bengal: Its Chiefs, Agents, and Governors In 1738, so far from Mr. Cruttenden being Governor, the Honourable John Stackhouse held that position, and one Edward Holden Cruttenden (the only one of the name I have been able to trace) was nearly at the bottom of the list of writers at Bengal. He. However, subsequently rose to be a Member of Council, and was appointed to that rank on the 18th April 1748. He came by degrees to be second in Council, Roger Drake being then President and Governor; but, in a de Spatch of the 31st January 1755, the Court wrote to Bengal, that, Having reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of Mr. Edward Holden Cruttenden, we hereby direct that upon the receipt of this he be immediately dismissed from the Company s service. He was accordingly dismissed on the 28th August 1755 (bengal Consultations), and consequently he never became Governor of Bengal.
