We are indebted to Mr. Andrew Jay Frame, of Waukesha, Wisconsin, for a copy of his address delivered before the State Bank Section of The American Bankers Association at Los Angeles, Cal., October 3rd, 1921. Mr. Frame is Chairman of the Board of the Waukesha National Bank, Waukesha, Wisconsin, with which institution he has been connected for nearly sixty years. THE BRANCH BANK MENACE The serious question before the American people to-day is, shall we cut out the cancerous growth of Branch Banking that is slowly eating out our vitals, or shall we sleep at the switch and permit the Monopolists to take away our birthright? We grieve to disagree with some of our good friends. We further concede there are some natural monopolies, but cannot concede that Branch Banking is one of them, any more than Branch Stores are leeches upon...
