MISTRESS OF SERENITY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Drug abuse and scandal sent rock superstar, Brandon Vant, tumbling to the bottom of an ambitious career when he was at the pinnacle of success. In the years following his demise, the music genius overcame addiction to become a successful record producer and multi-millionaire, but it wasn't enough. His love of performing calls him back to the stage. While preparing for his first concert tour in five years, Brandon searches for a fresh voice to add to his band. A voice to help put him back on top of the music world and become his next, great discovery. Jesse Wyatt grew up on a ranch in the grasslands of Wyoming. Her dream of performing before thousands of fans expanded through adolescence, but died at the hand of adult reality in a nine-to-five job. She quiets the subconscious nagging by performing in local theatre and filling in for musicians at nightclubs. But it isn't what she had in mind when dreaming of fame in her youth. During a chance encounter, Brandon hears Jesse sing and knows she's the voice he's been looking for. Using his charm, he convinces her to leave her secure life in Wyoming and follow him to California, where she signs on to be his background vocalist during a year-long tour. In the studio, Brandon's the ultimate professional, teaching Jesse every detail of the music business. On stage, he draws her in and for the length of a song she can pretend she's the only woman in his life. Though she knows it isn't real, Jesse's emotions spiral between hidden attraction to the sexy man and reverence for his talent...
