Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Joe, a Godly man, the sea captain of the Mourning Dove, a 70-foot salmon troller takes on parolees to help rehabilitate them. Joe fears he may have met his match when Clancy, a PO brings him Max. A parolee, convicted of murder one at 16 served hard time for 13 years. Joe is reluctant but willing to try. Gus, his first mate, is very skeptical. Although proud of his crew, it saddens Joe none consider God as any kind of a priority. Still, he feels God has brought them aboard for some reason and this is good enough for him. Over two hundred trollers, all ages and sizes, cross the bar early with the expectation of a good day of salmon fishing. MIDDAY, a sudden storm comes upon the Mosquito Fleet and many do not return to the small fishing village on the Washington Coast. Quint, Commander of the Coast Guard Small Craft Station at Westport, plays an integral part in the life saving part of the story. Also Joe s good friend, Quint tries...
