Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Articulation of High School and College, the Reorganization of Secondary Education The conviction is spreading throughout the United States that our high schools are seriously handicapped by present college entrance requirements. In the west, the colleges and high schools are co-operating with marked success in bringing about a better articulation of these two institutions. In order to hasten a reform in the east the High School Teachers Association of New York City at its meeting in March, 1910, authorized the President of the Association, Mr. Arthur L. Janes, to appoint a committee of five to consider what steps should be taken. He appointed the following committee: - William McAndrew, Principal of the Washington Irving High School; Ellen R. Rushmore, of the Manual Training High School; James Sullivan, Principal of the Boys High School; James F. Wilson, of the Stuyvesant High School; and Clarence D. Kingsley, of the Manual Training High School, Chairman. This committee made a detailed study of the entrance requirements of a large number of colleges and drew up a statement setting forth...
