Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. .a high concept thriller that is comparable with the best of Dan Brown or Jack Higgins. - Novelist - David Luddington The story races along with (the) pace of a Tom Clancy thriller. - For years, the global manufacturing giant, China, pushed its resources to the limit, until it became clear that without more oil to maintain their manufacturing infrastructure and a burgeoning population, they would face implosion and civil disorder on a mass scale. When negotiations with Iran, to pipeline more oil to China, goes awry, China launches an overwhelming military strike to commandeer the oil fields - believing that no other nation will come to Iran's aid. Three days into the assault, a desperate Iranian leader issues China an ultimatum, stop the invasion or face a nuclear strike. China dismisses the threat as a hoax and presses on. When the nuclear warhead finally spears into the sky on a trajectory for Beijing, and as the Chinese ballistic defense system fails to stop it, the world stands still. In just eight minutes, the time it takes...
