Brandon, Kember, and the newest member Johnny have survived the initial wave of Day One. The second book in the series, CHOICES, finds our reluctant survivors on a military installation run by a very peculiar Captain Andrews. A man that lost his family in the first few day, yet is still able to command the remaining men under him. They have safety in numbers, and although Brandon is thankful to his host, there are still the thoughts of his ten year old son, Gage, lost amidst the chaos and death on the opposite side of the fence, which protects them. Through insurmountable odds and an undying will to overcome any obstacle in his path, Brandon forms a plan - a daring rescue which will pull Kember and Johnny along for the ride. There is no certainty, no guarantee that things will go according to plan, yet they set out anyway in a stolen military chopper. Streaking through the night, armed to the teeth, Brandon wonders if he son will still be alive or if its too late Only time will...
