The University of Alabama Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Winner of FC2 s Ronald Sukenick Innovative Fiction Prize An unflinching and riveting meditation on the pain that attends every facet of existenceaEURO love and sacrifice and intimacy and beautyaEURO a biography of torture. Like all of Vi Khi Nao s acclaimed and award-winning work, A Brief Alphabet of Torture bleeds across many modes and genresaEURO poetry, essay, fiction, dramaaEURO and itself almost constitutes a novel of a different kind. Each tale captures the emotional, physical, psychological, political, and artistic concerns that pervade life like breath and which, even when very beautiful, are filled with pain. These stories are all facets of Nao s imagination that define the way she views creation, sexuality, violence, and the role of life in an ontological system that relies heavily on cultural, social, and artistic duress. Some stories like i?1/2Winter Rosei?1/2 and i?1/2I Love You Me Neitheri?1/2 rise above the boundaries of pain to places of beauty and grace and love, where pain has no place, but make clear how rare such moments appear in life.
