Brand New Book. Excerpt from Olga Nethersole lss Olga Nethersole is known to the world as an actress: had she not chos en the stage as the field for her endeavor, she would have been a physician. After all these years of success in the limelight of the theatre, she frequently regrets her choice of the two professions and seeks consolation in the fact that she recognizes a kinship between the two. The surgeon wields the knife and relieves pain. The physician probes into suffering and applies the balm. The actress may not find the weaknesses of the ?esh; but she probes into souls, paints them with bold impression istic colors upon the canvas of the stage. She turns the rays of sunshine upon the cancers of sin and points the road to moral recovery and intellectual awakening to those about her. Thus from the commencement of her career as an actress, Miss Nethersole has felt that shehad a great moral and humane mission as well as an artistic ideal to...
