Mountain Brook Ink, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Can love triumph over tragedy and bring joy amid winter? When unexpected tragedy hits her family, Carol Mason struggles to forge a new life for herself and her sons. Though Vermont has been their home for twenty years, betrayal and misunderstanding force Carol to leave the mountains she loves and return to her hometown of Apache Pointe, Arizona. There she is welcomed by scorching heat, lizards, scorpions, and (gulp) Aunt Penny. Carol finds a sympathetic friend in her cousin Millie as she does her best to put the pieces of her shattered life back together. But her prayers for guidance and a decent place to live away from Aunt Penny's disapproving eye go unanswered. Has God turned a deaf ear to her just when she needs Him the most? The answer might be found in the handsome pastor of her family's church. Frank is everything she would look for in a spouse. If she were looking. Which she is not. Especially when she discovers that Cousin Millie has set her hopes on becoming the pastor's next wife. Aunt Penny's outrageous attempts to ensure that Millie wins Frank's heart bring Carol's past crashing into her present, and might destroy any chance she has at a happy future. The writing team of Hanna and Dulworth deliver a story full of love and faith, and sprinkled with touches of humor that will have you wondering whether to laugh or cry.
