Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Illustrated Descriptive Catalogue of American Grape Vines: A Grape Growers Manual The Bushberg Catalogue has become a vade mecum of American Grape-growers; it has also been translated into French and Italian, an honor probably never before bestowed on any Nurserymen's Fruit Catalogue. Its reprint has long been demanded, but we could not consent thereto until we had leisure to thoroughly revise it. The great favor with which it was received, made us the more feel our duty to perfect it as far as was in our power. The experience and researches of these eight years, since the issue of the second edition, enable us to rectify some of its defects, to speak more definitely of the merits and demerits of many varieties, then new and untried, and to add a very large number of New Grapes which have since been produced or introduced. The American Grape has also become of greater and more comprehensive importance by virtue of its now well established Phylloxera-resisting qualities, and, though grown in Europe chiefly as a grafting stock for their favorite kinds, every variety has been tested there; - some few, as the Lenoir (Jacques), Herbemont, etc., are largely planted for direct production, - thus enabling us to add to our own opinion that of the best foreign connoisseurs. Nor have we neglected to consult the views of other grape-growers, and to avail ourselves of the many valuable essays on the grape, written by eminent Horticultural authors, and scattered in books, newspapers and reports. Dr. George Engelmann, the celebrated Botanist has enhanced the value of our Catalogue by revising for it his Classification of the True Grape-vines of...
