Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In this day in age pre-marital sex has become normal while at the same time so has having children at an early age. Young men are usually the suspects in such situations without having anyone or any where to turn to for guidance and acceptance. Kevin Money has been down that road becoming a father at the tender age of seventeen and had to rely on hard lessons to become the man and father he is today. With this book, he encourages young men and fathers to stay in the game no matter how hard it may be. Young women and mothers should read this book to understand the mind of a young father and be that extra encouragement he needs to be a great father. Young men whether they are fathers, or engaging in sexual activity, or have thought about it will see this book as an eye opener and a life changing experience that will send them down the right path to becoming more than just great fathers but great men.
