Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For darkness to emerge, the brightness of light must expose its shadow. To prove that no one will run him out of the city that he owns, Antwon is determined to find out who Shadow is, get his revenge, and bring his little brother home before his twenty-four hours are up. With the clock ticking away, Antwon is desperate, and desperate times calls for desperate measures. Shadow is a man of few words whose name speaks volumes in the streets. He s always watching but remains unseen. Shadow is a man who will step out of the darkness to protect what s his. There s just one thing, once shadow is exposed, lives will be taken. Shanika and Chris s relationship is starting to blossom into something beautiful. The only thing that is holding Shanika back from complete happiness is being estranged from her family. Family means everything to Chris, so he convinces Shanika to reconcile and make amends with her family, but he s holding a secret from her that could possibly bring their blossoming relationship to an end. Jedy and Nate have been struggling to rebuild their relationship that they once had, and no matter how hard Nate tries to make things right, Jedy always finds a way to tear the relationship apart. Being envious of Shanika and Antwon s relationship, Jedy distances herself from her best friend, only to find out that the grass certainly wasn t greener on the other side. Trying to recover from a devastating hurt, Jedy will soon come to realize what s most important, and hopefully for her, it s not too late. As secrets are exposed and relationships are put to the test...
